feature wall with a dual-sided fireplace; a quality country-style kitchen with marble benchtops; a private outdoor area surrounded by tropical greenery and so much more.

The complex itself features easy-to-maintain facilities, including a resort-style pool, barbecue area, a recreation room with pool table and a small gym. The complex is gated with an intercom and surrounded by tropical, manicured landscaping, offering security, privacy and tranquillity.

The real standout feature is the additional income this offers as the caretaker for the complex. There are no qualification or licensing requirements and the work is minimal, perfect for those looking to slow down or pick up an additional income stream. The main duties are to look after the common ground in the complex (gardening, pool) and report any maintenance to the body corporate.
