Holiday Management Rights for Sale

Flexible Income and Growth Potential in Beautiful Tin Can Bay

- Positioned right on the water, this boutique resort presents a rare opportunity to secure a true lifestyle business in one of the region's most relaxed coastal settings. Opportunities of this nature are tightly held and seldom come to market.
- The property is exceptionally well maintained, and the business is simple to operate, running smoothly with a low-stress, manageable workload. Supported by consistent demand from repeat guests and holidaymakers, and a strong base of returning clientele, this is a secure and reliable business that provides both income and peace of mind.
- There are no set office hours or no requirement to live onsite, however the manager is required to own the residence.

- A standout feature is the versatile manager's residence, currently divided into two separate spaces—offering the flexibility to generate additional income.
- Ideal for first-time operators or those looking to transition into a more relaxed, semi-retired lifestyle, this is a genuine lifestyle business where waterfront living meets dependable returns.
- Opportunities like this are limited and highly sought after—this is a safe and secure business in our fast changing world.
